CANADA AND AUSTRALASIA.

Canada has taken the initiative methopolicy of establishing closer relations between heavelf and Australasia. The mission of Mr. McKenzie Bowelthe Canadian Minister of Commerce, to the governments of the Australian colonies has avaked hearty response. As a result, a conference will, it is important question. It is represented on the Concell by Mr. Neff, member for Moosomin, and while he may submit to some delay we are estilled between the two great countain continents. The electric link control dear the premier ship of General and o Mr. Moosom from the Imperial point of view, to be exposed for the length of a single inch to the control and exprise of any freeign power. That Australians are not behind Canadians in the new enterprise is evident from the statement that Sir Thomas Me. ENGLAND'S NAVAL UPREMACY.

The proof that the Imperial temper har not quite died out among the largish is the unenimity with which all parties insist, at least in words, on the maintenance of naval supremacy. The approaching expiry of the Naval Dotense act; the apprehensions aroused by the Flanco-Russian alliance and the opening of French harbors in the Mediterranean to Russian men fawar together with the comparative weak meas of England's fleet in those wavers have given rise to a vigorous agitation with a view to making the British Navy what it should be. The absolute fleecasity of maintaining the command of all the sens is admitted by morn not generally suspected of Imperial ethusiasm. Mr. John Morley, op aking at Manchester, declared that Englard must maintain an "all-powerful" navy. Lord Charles Beresford requires as the minimum standard of efficiency a Section of the Charles and the section of the se

Ottawa citizen: "The fact is, as anyone who has travelled in England knows, that the alledged superiority of English meat is a baseless prejudice. The cattle trade between Canada and The cattle trady between Carada and Great Britain has not been very profitable of late, and this farmishes the more reason why means should be aken to prevent any movey that might be madeour of it going into the hands of extortionate Rugish middlenen. The westlishment of stores where Canadian products would be sold as such at fair prices might be a houn to our exporters."

The people of Quebec should insist upon the present government holding the confice stall hazads. The province is just now emerging from the mire into which Mr. Mereier plunged her, and it would be worse than a calassity if that demoralized and graceless man should be afferded an opportunity of threating her back again, as he undoubtedly would had be the epiportunity.

It is o'so represented on the staff of Inspectors, but as yet Mr. Mitchell does not se in (we presume he has tried) to have been able to secure a hir class normal session for this district; and our I spector has been detailed to Calgary far the purpose of holding one that.
